

Directions to Head Waters Lodge
Your GPS may deceive you
540-396-4822 Lodge

From Harrisonburg.

- 42 South to Churchville
- Right onto 250 West
- Stay on Route 250 going up and over a winding mountain road, when you will finally come to the little town of Head Waters.
- Upon entering Head Waters, you will see a little white church on your left and a little white store, Miller's Store, on your right. (If Miller's is open, stop a get a picture with Ronny Miller)
- Go one and a half miles past Millers Store and turn right onto Cowpasture Road North, which is also Route 614.
- After turning right onto Cowpasture Road North, look at your odometer; our driveway is exactly 7 miles from this point.
- Our driveway is on the left marked by a large wooden YDI sign. Go left and come on up the driveway.

From Lynchburg

- From Lynchburg, take 29 north to I-64 west.
- From I-64 west take 81 south.
- After getting on 81 south you will take exit 220
- Take exit 220, which is Route 262
- After exiting go right heading west on 262.
- You will come to the Churchville Ave/Route 250 exit. Exit here and go left on Route 250.
- At this time make all final cell phone calls as you will lose reception soon.
- You will be on Route 250 for approximately 25 miles, going up and over a winding mountain road, when you will finally come to the little town of Head Waters.
- Upon entering Head Waters, you will see a little white church on your left and a little white store named Millers Store on your right. . (If Miller's is open, stop a get a picture with Ronny Miller)
- Go one and a half miles past Millers Store and turn right onto Cowpasture Road North which is also Route 614.
- After turning right onto Cowpasture Road North, look at your odometer, our driveway is exactly 7 miles from this point.
- Our driveway is on the left marked by a large wooden YDI sign. Go left and come on up the driveway.

From Richmond

- From Richmond, take I-64 west.
- From I-64 take 81 south.
- After getting on 81 south you will take your first exit which is exit 220
- Take exit 220, which is Route 262
- After exiting go right heading west on 262.
- You will come to the Churchville Ave/Route 250 exit. Exit here and go left on Route 250.
- At this time make all final cell phone calls as you will lose reception soon.
- You will be on Route 250 for approximately 25 miles, going up and over a winding mountain road, when you will finally come to the little town of Head Waters.
- Upon entering Head Waters, you will see a little white church on your left and a little white store named Millers Store on your right. . (If Miller's is open, stop a get a picture with Ronny Miller)
- Go one and a half miles past Millers Store and turn right onto Cowpasture Road North which is also Route 614.
- After turning right onto Cowpasture Road North, look at your odometer, our driveway is exactly 7 miles from this point.
- Our driveway is on the left marked by a large wooden YDI sign. Go left and come on up the driveway.